

Asian Futures: Reimagining the Future of Work

Wednesday 10th November 2021 @ SGT 15:00 - 16:30 | Zoom Meeting

SESSION AGENDA

15:00-15:05	Welcome and introductions
15:05-15:10	Introduction breakout groups
15:10-15:40	Presentation and Q&amp;A: BPP     Vicky Knight Associate Dean - International Programmes BPP  <ul data-bbox="373 891 1445 1059" style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Vicky will provide the broader context of the framework for skills development, planning and talent management within an organisation.</li> <li>• She will also explain how learning needs to be relevant, tailored to the industry its applied to, to add value and ensure people utilise new skills.</li> </ul>
15:40-16:10	Presentation and Q&amp;A: KPMG Australia     Nicola Wolny Head of People and Inclusion KPMG Australia  <ul data-bbox="373 1395 1461 1686" style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Nicola will provide practical, real world insight into the challenges and pitfalls in future skills development planning.</li> <li>• She will highlight how to map skills to help build skills and plan talent for the future and the importance of an organisation's mindset in the use of human skills to attract and retain talent.</li> <li>• How she has used planning to gain the co-operation of business unit leaders.</li> </ul>
16:10-16:25	Fireside Chat: Clive Andrews, Nicola Wolny and Vicky Knight <ul data-bbox="373 1827 1458 1906" style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An informal discussion with the experts on the future of work. Vicky and Nicola will answer questions from Clive and the audience.</li> </ul>
16:25-16:30	Conclusions and close

Register your place